TO-DAY

TO-DAY

THE Athenaum very justly recommends Mr. James Appleton Morgan, whose "Macaronic Poetry" it re-views, to subject his Latin and Greek quotations to

THE Saturday Review, in a notice of Septimius, says that Hawthorne must be pronounced by far the finest literary artist that America has produced. A COLLECTION OF LETTERS FROM GOETHE to Sienstadt, editor of the Allgemeine Literatur-cellung, is about the one-thousandth publication relating to the great German scholar. The leters are most interesting between the years 1863

JEAN LEMOINNE, the Parisian journalist, has written a life of Eugène Sue, the novelist, which conre of that successful writer.

A SERIES OF WORKS is announced by Messrs. ng reprints of scarce publications of which Shakspeare was cognizant, and which may be useal in making us live more completely in the world of ideas by which he was surrounded. The editor of these reprints is Mr. R. Simpson, already known as author of "An Introduction to the Philosophy of hakspeare's Sonnets."

PROPESSOR SAYOUS has lately put forth in Paris a ort and interesting "History of the Hungarians and their Political Literature from 1790 to 1815."

JOHN ALBERGER does not like Popes nor monks, looks upon the Catholic Church as a gigantic maniracy against the liberties of the world. It is ngenious in its construction, opulent in its rewrees, extensive in its ramifications and formid able in its character. And he has published his impeachment, with more assertions than proofs, we are sorry to say, in a 12mo. volume, entitled, "Monks, Popes and Their Political Intrigues."

The Revista Europa is about to publish a series of ritical biographies of eminent living Italians, who, by their life and example, have exercised an important influence on the actual condition of Italian literature; also, during this year, three special studies on "Eminent Indianologists." "The Friends of Italy," and on "Illustrious Authoresses."

THE HACK DRIVERS' STRIKE.

The coach drivers (members of Union No. 1 of this city) met at Constitution Hall, Third avenue and Twenty-second street, last evening. The meeting was not called to order till haif-past nine, when Mr. B. A. Leonard took the chair, D. J. Flynn officiating as secretary. Harnett, of Thirtieth street, was reported to have withdrawn on Saturday night from his Drevious agreement to pay drivers $14 per week. A stableman named Wilson was subsequently reported as having refused to acquiesce in their demands. They were threatened with the same penalty as that visited upon Daniel Hillz, of Fourth street, who upon their complaint was fined by the Mayor $20 for employing an unlicensed effiver. The case of Mr. Merriam, of the Brevoort House stables, was animalverted upon in the session, the men contrasting the action of all the large stable proprietors with that of one Barreit, ronning "Calvary cabs," who pays even his stablemen $19 per week. It was finally decided to strike to-day in all stables the proprietors of which refused to pay drivers the rate demanded.

SUICIDE BY TAKING POISON.

About ten days since Stephen D. Hicks. a young man, whose father does an extensive business at No. 219 Greenwich street, while under great mental excitement, caused perhaps by indulging to excess in alcoholic stimulants, swallowed a dose of arsenic for the purpose of terminating his existence, which had become burdensome to him. One of the police surgeons was called to attend young Hicks, who seemed to do well, and for a time strong hopes were entertained of his recovery, but, being taken suddenly worse on Saturday evening died soon alterwards. Previous to his death, Mr. Hicks told some members of his family and also the doctor that he had swallowed the poison in a glass of lager beer, but did not say where or the circumstraces which prompted the act. Mr. Hicks told the doctor that he laid carried the poison in his pocket for six weeks; and all efforts to learn where he procured the arsenic proved unavailing. Deceased was twenty-three years of ago and a native of Brooklyn; as a rule he was steady, and possessed business qualifications of no mean order. excitement, caused perhaps by indulging to excess
